

HISTORY

The Links, Incorporated was founded in the immediate aftermath of World War II by the late Sarah S. Scott and the late Margaret R. Hawkins in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on November 9, 1946.

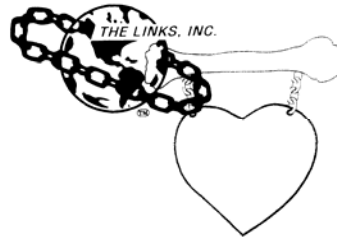

This international organization of over 12,000 members encompasses 273 chapters throughout the United States, District of Columbia, Frankfurt, Germany, Nassau, Bahamas and South Africa.

Through the foresight of the late Ella Sealey Clayton, the West Palm Beach Chapter was chartered in 1969. Because membership is the lifeline of Linkdom, this chapter has grown from fourteen charter members to its present complement of 47.

MISSION

The Links, Incorporated is dedicated to improving the quality of life for Americans of African descent and people of African descent worldwide. For more than 57 years, it has defined itself as "a group of friends committed to civic, educational, and cultural activities, with the singular purpose of serving community needs for the improvement of life and the pursuit of excellence."

Toward this end, The Links, Incorporated has gathered momentum, continuously redefining its purposes, sharpening its focus, and expanding program dimensions in order to make the name "Links" not only a chain of friendship, but also a bond purposeful and committed public service.

NATIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Through the organization's philanthropic arm, The Links Foundation, Inc., more than $20 million has been granted to charitable institutions. Of that amount, over one million dollars has been pledged to the United Negro College Fund.

Among the many organizations to which national Grants-in-Aid have been made are:

- African American Museum – Tacoma, WA
- Black Family Oral History – Albany, NY
- Dallas Black Dance Theatre – Dallas, TX
- Fisk University Jubilee Singers – Nashville, TN
- Jack and Jill of America – Columbia, MD
- Kids in Biz Project – Atlantic City, NJ
- National Civil Rights Museum— Nashville, TN
- NAACP Legal & Education Defense Fund
- Project Sankofa's Young Ladies of Distinction Program – Altamonte Springs, FL
- Schomberg Center for Research – Harlem, NY
- The African Cultural Safari – Honolulu, Hawaii
- Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Fund – NYC

Presently, The Links, Incorporated is involved in implementing expanded program services through its National Program Facets. Most recently developed is its Signature Program, Links to Success: Children Achieving Excellence, a non-formal learning readiness/ achievement program for young children.
